BEYOND '5-14'

art and art teaching in the new era of Curriculum for Excellence

A one-day Artist Teacher Taster event at Kelvingrove,
Glasgow, Saturday 13 March 2010

This one-day Artist Teacher Taster event at Glasgow's Kelvingrove Art Gallery and Museum will explore what it is to be an Artist Teacher in the post 5-14 period of Curriculum for Excellence (CfE). Participants can expect to engage in a wide range of discussion and workshops throughout the day. Confirmed speakers include Paul Dash of Goldsmiths/TATE Modern Artist Teacher MA, Dr. Richard Yeomans whose research into the pedagogy of Richard Hamilton and Victor Pasmore has earned him the reputation as a leading scholar in the area of artist/teacher pedagogy and Scott Donaldson of Scottish Screen who will speak on Moving Image Education and its place in CfE. Other contributions from artists and artist teachers working in the region.

The context for this event is the launch of the MEd Artist Teacher programme at the University of the West of Scotland.

Fee for the day £35 (includes lunch and refreshments)

To find out more about the MEd Artist Teacher Programme at UWS contact the programme leader Diarmuid McAuliffe at diarmuid.mcauliffe@uws.ac.uk or www.uws.ac.uk/MEdAT for more information.
