

Sample letter about dig money

If you live with a parent/guardian and pay dig money as a contribution towards household expenses, we need a letter/note/email from the person you pay that confirms how much you pay, how often and what this covers.

This doesn't have to be a formal letter, but you should collate this along with the rest of your application and supporting evidence and submit it with your application pack.

Date

To Whom It May Concern,

My son, John Smith, currently resides in the family home.

Your name

He is required to contribute to the household and pays me £200 for digs each month.

How much and how often

This covers all household bills such as electricity, internet access, food, laundry etc.

What this covers

John is responsible for his own mobile phone and car costs, including fuel and insurance.

It's also handy to specify what this doesn't cover

I hope this information is sufficient,

Mrs. Smith
