

RIVERSIDE SOLIDARITY

Fablevision, University of the West of Scotland, NHS Greater Glasgow and Clyde and Clyde Docks Preservation Initiative are hosting a Seminar (see below) followed by the official opening of the Riverside Solidarity exhibition, a celebration of a year-long artists residency programme sharing ideas and future planning visions for the respective waterfront heritage zones in Govan and Gdansk.

Friday 2nd February 2pm - 4pm	Seminar Room 1, Laboratory Medicine Building, QEUH campus, 1345 Govan Road, Govan, G51 4TF
2pm - Arrival	tea/coffee and biscuits
Chair opening	Liz Gardiner, Fablevision and UWS
Introduction and welcome	Professor Katarzyna Kosmala, UWS
Film screening	CDPI film made by Fablevision Studios looking at the heritage importance of the Graving Docks as well as current planning proposals and ideas for the future
Heritage Management of Industrial Structures and Infrastructure	Louisa Humm, Senior Casework Officer, Historic Environment Scotland
A successful example of reindustrialization	John Morgan, Director of Business Development, Ferguson Marine
The aspirations of the local community in Govan	Councillor Allan Young, Govan Ward (Green Party)
An alternative planning proposal	Maurice Hickey, Ink Design, on behalf of Jim McColl and Clyde Blowers
The campaign: CDPI and Govan Docks Regeneration Trust	Arthur Nicholls and Iain McGillivray
Open Discussion
4pm - Close and proceed to the Main Atrium for the official exhibition opening and refreshments	