

Sample letter about dig money

If you live with parents or guardians and pay dig money, this is all we need to confirm how much you pay, how often you pay it and what it covers.

Providing a handwritten note from a parent or guardian is sufficient.

To Whom it May Concern,

My son, John Brown, currently resides in the family home.

He is required to contribute to the household and pays £200 to me each month for digs.

This covers all household bills such as electricity, food and internet access.

John pays for his own mobile phone and car costs.

I hope this is sufficient information,

Mrs Brown.

What it covers

It's also handy to specify what it doesn't cover. We can then consider these costs separately.
