Section 5c) – Household income and expenditure:

The table below details the standard rates we recommend. We will apply these rates when assessing all applications in order to be fair and consistent.

If your monthly outgoings differ considerably to the figures below, you should book an appointment to see an Adviser who can help you understand how to make the most of your money and budget more effectively.

Use the table on the next page to provide details of your monthly income and expenditure. If you live with a spouse or partner, you should also include their income. It is much easier for us to match your income or expenditure to your supporting documentation when it is itemised so you must use the headings provided.

INCOME

Any weekly income (such as Tax Credits or Child Benefit) should be multiplied by 52, and then divided by 12 to get a monthly figure

Any annual income/expenditure (such as Car Insurance) should be divided by 12 to get a monthly figure
